

Southeast Asian – German Summer School 2005
Urban and Peri-Urban Developments – Structures, Processes and Solutions
16th – 29th October 2005

Please note that the schedule may change at the beginning of the program since we will receive some additional presentations

The program will start every day at 8:30 a.m. (except of Monday), lunch break between 12:00 am and 14:00 p.m., end of official program between 16:00 and 18:00 p.m., please note: on Monday the 17th of October the participants will be picked up at the hotel at 8:00 a.m.

1	Sunday 16/10/05	Arrival of participants
2	Monday 17/10/05	Salutations, evaluation and presentation of the program A.M.: Welcome addresses Introduction of all country groups and participants Establishment of expectations of the participants P.M.: Presentation and explanation of the program
3	Tuesday 18/10/05	Presentation of the university, city excursion “Cologne” A.M.: Presentation of the university P.M.: City excursion: city development, culture and tourism in Cologne; led by Prof. Nipper
4	Wednesday 19/10/05	Thematic focus: “Inner urban fragmentation - conflicts and hotspots” A.M.: Excursion: “Social hotspots in Cologne”, led by PD Dr. Zehner P.M.: Presentations and discussion: Mr. Phyrum San, Ministry of Land Management, Urban Planning and Construction (MLMUPC), Phnom Penh, Cambodia: Urban poor community upgrading in Phnom Penh Mr. Sy Rathmony, M.Sc., Ministry of Land Management, Urban Planning and Construction (MLMUPC), Phnom Penh, Cambodia: Land validation and urban real estate markets in Cambodia Prof. Dr. Sekson Yongvanit, Khon Kaen University, Thailand: Urban ecology and urban social management in Khon Kaen Prof. Dr. Pfeffer, Tübingen Cities - ecological negative areas. Perspectives for an improvement Drs. Heru Santoso, M.A., Development Centre University of North Sumatra (USU), Indonesia: Urbanisation and health issues in urban North Sumatra
5	Thursday 20/10/05	Thematic focus: „Peri-urban and intra-urban migration“ A.M.: Presentations and discussion: Dr. Nguyen Thi Binh Minh, Ministry of Construction, Hanoi, Vietnam: Urbanisation and participation of private sector in urban environmental planning and management in Vietnam Dr. Badaruddin, Development Centre University of North Sumatra (USU) – Indonesia: The effects of natural hazards (tsunami disaster) on migration and development dynamics in Medan City Mr. Agus Joko Pitoyo, M.A., Gadjah Mada University (UGM) Yogyakarta, Indonesia: Micro-urban economic sectors (SMEs and informal sectors) Prof. Dr. Frauke Kraas, University of Cologne, Germany: Ethnic minorities in Cologne: trans-national spaces in urban areas Dr. Sukamdi, Gadjah Mada University (UGM) Yogyakarta, Indonesia: Urban population and migration in Indonesia – a general introduction Mrs. Umi Listyaningsih, M.Sc., Gadjah Mada University (UGM) Yogyakarta, Indonesia: Differences in quality of live for migrants and non-migrants - a potential of social conflicts P.M.: Excursion: „Migration – examples from Bonn“, led by Prof. Thieme

6	Friday 21/10/05	Presentation of German exchange programs Cultural and religious exchange (according to the preferences of the participants) A.M.: Presentation of German exchange programs P.M.: Friday prayer in a local mosque „Get-Together“ with representatives of various alumni and international exchange associations
7	Saturday 22/10/05	Thematic focus: “Development and planning of urban and peri-urban areas “ A.M.: Presentations and discussion: Mr. Lor Chhun Pau, M.Sc., Ministry of Land Management, Urban Planning and Construction (MLMU), Phnom Penh, Cambodia: Land administration in Cambodia Ir. Rony Primanto Hari, M.T., Planning Department Yogyakarta, Indonesia: Urban and peri-urban management and conflicts in Yogyakarta Dr. J.-P. Mund, Royal University of Agriculture, Phnom Penh, Cambodia: Urban and peri-urban land management – examples from Cambodian cities Mrs. Imma Ray Gatuslao, City Government Cagayan de Oro, Philippines: Information and communication for social mobilisation and community organising in urbanised areas Dr. Adiyanti S. - Buchholz, Institute of Technology Indonesia (ITI) Jakarta, Indonesia: How essential is Community-based Solid Waste Management in peri-urban Indonesia? Study case: Jakarta peri-urban Areas Mrs. Imelda Barrios Baleta, Asian Development Bank, Manila, Philippines: Urban strategy and operations in the Philippines P.M.: Meeting and discussion
8	Sunday 23/10/05	Cultural and religious exchange (according to the preferences of the participants) A.M.: Catholic mass in the cathedral of Cologne P.M.: Visit to museums, concerts, etc.
9	Monday 24/10/05	Visits to organisations of international co-operation (according to the preferences of the participants) A.M.: Introduction of InWEnt (human resources and organizational development and international cooperation) P.M.: Excursion: City development by the example of Düsseldorf, led by Dr. Schneider
10	Tuesday 25/10/05	Thematic focus: “Urban development and transformation processes” A.M.: Presentations and discussion: Prof. Dr. Lee Boon Thong, University of Malaya Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia: Urban planning and development in Malaysia Mrs. Phan Tanh Ha, Central Institute of Economic Management (CIEM), Vietnam: Transition – “Doi moi” process and urban development in Vietnam Mrs. Rini Rachmawati, M.A., Gadjah Mada University (UGM) Yogyakarta, Indonesia: Urbanisation and development of technology Mr. Khanh Hung Duong, Dipl.-Geogr., University of Basel, Switzerland: Urban economic development in Vietnam Mrs. Thi Thu, BBI - Training and Consulting Institute Hanoi, Vietnam Sustainable development of ancient quarters in Hanoi City Dr. Dorothea Wiktorin, University of Cologne, Germany Urban development and transformation processes in Germany P.M.: Excursion: “Transformation processes in Cologne’s eastern quarters“

11	Wednesday 26/10/05	Thematic focus: Presentation of current projects (“Best Practice”) and opportunities of future collaboration A.M. and P.M.: Projects and Co-operation between German and Southeast Asia Universities - Development and Network Outlook Presentations and discussion: Mr. Lor Chhun Pau M.Sc. and Dr. J. –P. Mund, Royal University of Agriculture, Phnom Penh, Cambodia: Curriculum Development for a Land Management and Land Tenure Education Programs in Cambodia Prof. Dr. Anselmo Mercado, SEARSOLIN College, Cagayan de Oro, Philippines: Background, study program and curricula of SEARSOLIN Prof. Dr. Drescher, University of Freiburg, Germany: The application of a home garden livelihood model to allotment gardens - an approach to system comparison and development perspectives Dr. Robert Holmer, SEARSOLIN College, Cagayan de Oro City, Philippines: Allotment gardens of Cagayan de Oro City: their contribution to food security and urban environmental management Prof. Dr. Revilla Diez, University of Kiel, Germany: The changing role of public research institutions for the innovation potential in Thailand Dr. Hartono, Dean of the Geographical Faculty of UGM Yogyakarta, Indonesia: Development and ideas of joint German-Southeast Asian curricula Dr. Adiyanti S. - Buchholz, Institute of Technology Indonesia (ITI), Jakarta, Indonesia: Practical work for international students at ITI Dr. Klaus Fritsche, Director of Asienhaus, Essen, Germany: Introduction of Asienhaus Essen: activities and international cooperation N. N., Mega City Task Force of the International Geographical Union <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Concluding discussion and final evaluation of project proposals, project experiences ➤ Discussions of new potential co-operations ➤ Planning of future joint activities from 2006 onwards (work groups)
12	Thursday 27/10/05	Thematic focus: Project proposals and opportunities of future co-operation A.M.: Future activities Presentation of ideas for future joint activities and tangible proposals P.M.: farewell party
13	Friday 28/10/05	Cultural Exchange/ Farewell A.M.: Evaluation, final discussion and closing remarks Review and evaluation of the summer school Final discussion Closing remarks P.M.: free program
14	Saturday 29/10/05	Departure